Re: U.S. v. Young, No. 1:16cr265 Discovery Letter #22 & 902(11) Certifications

Dear Linda:

In accordance with our discovery obligations in this case, I have left at the reception desk of the US Attorney's office an envelope for your retrieval, including the following items:

1. A dvd marked "Discovery DVD 11-6-2017" and "Contains photos, CBP frm, FBI lap rpt, CART rpt, Passport appl." The password for the dvd is on the back of the dvd's enclosing envelop.
2. A dvd marked "CART Report 1B61 - Casio Flip Phone MEID A10000039016EA. You need the second dvd in order to activate the links in the CART report included on the first dvd.
3. A FBI FD-302 by Special Agent Shane Nishioka, regarding a VHS tape titled "Chechen Guerrilla Tactics Total Resistance."
4. A spreadsheet containing Threema messages captured from the phone of Mohammad Bailor Jalloh (previously prosecuted in our office) that were exchanged between Jalloh and an individual using the account name "Yoda in da house." In the first message, "Yoda in da house" identified himself as "Abu isa alamreki." On line 45, "Yoda in da house" asked Jalloh to contact a REDACTED name. On line 60, Yoda in da house explained that the person that he asked Jalloh to contact was part of the "operation team in the U.S." The
5. A screenshot from February 2016, showing that "Yoda in da house" stated he was looking for someone to send him Google Play gift cards in amounts of $30 to $100.

6. A Department of Defense briefing from May 2016, noting the killing of an ISIS "external attack planner" known as Abu Isa Al Amriki.

7. A warrant and affidavit to search a gmail account.

8. I also have arranged for an additional page of classified discovery to be provided to Maura Peterson for provision to you.

9. I know that you are in the process of considering a number of stipulations regarding the authentication of evidence, but I cannot on that basis simply forego providing you notice pursuant to Rule 902(11). Accordingly, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 902(11), this letter is to provide you with notice of our intent to offer certain records of regularly conducted activity so that you have a fair opportunity to challenge them. The certifications of records of regularly conducted activity include the following exhibits:
